CHILTON WILL NOT ACCEPT

Special to The Eagle.

Austin, April 1.—Horace Chilton will not be the new railroad commissioner. Governor Campbell this morning received a letter from the former dated at his home in Dallas, positively declining the appointment offered yesterday. Friends of K. P. Curtis and J. L. Wortham, who have been active in their behalf, have now renewed their activities in behalf of these gentlemen.

GRANITE CUTTERS STRIKE

Special to The Eagle.

Fort Worth, April 1.—Two hundred Texas members of the Granite Cutters National Union struck this morning for a twenty-five cent advance in daily wages. This being April 1, the time for the renewal of annual contracts between the unions and the employers, and effective issue was made on the demand for the increased wage. The unions in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Austin and Ft. Worth are out. One firm of employers in Waxahatchie and one in this city have signed the new scale.

PAINTERS AND PAPER HANGERS STRIKE

Special to The Eagle.

Dallas, April 1.—Their demand for an increase of wages having been refused, two hundred painters and paper hangers went on a strike this morning. Ten employers have signed the new scale granting the increase, demanding giving employment to a small proportion of the union membership.

NO CLASH BETWEEN NAT'L AND STATE TROOPS

A Number of Full Bloods Released—Search for Crazy Snake Still Goes on—Negro Faction Quiet.

Special to The Eagle.

Muskogee, Okla., April 1.—The threatened clash between the government and state troops on account of the wholesale arrest of Indians by the state authorities was averted today, by the release of a number of the full bloods who were held as prisoners by Col. Hoffman in command of the militia. Thus harmony was restored.

The negro faction in camp here are in sympathy with the outlaws, and for a while it was feared they would join in the outbreak, but no such fear is entertained now since they have become perfectly quiet.

The search for Crazy Snake and his band is going forward but his exact whereabouts is as yet unknown. Since the Indians are poorly supplied with provisions and arms it is hoped that the old chief and his insurgents will go to pieces and surrender today.

FIGHT IN CHURCH CALLED OUT OFFICERS

Factions Opposing and Supporting Pastor Came to Blows After Services.—Minister and Another Man Arrested but Cases Dismissed.

Tulsa, Okla., April 1.—At the close of the midweek prayer service in the First Baptist church last night, C. A. Mitchell, the leader of a faction in the church opposed to the pastor called a business meeting with the object of declaring the pulpit vacant. The pastor, T. J. Slaughter, interfered with the result that a personal encounter between him and Mitchell took place and order was not restored until the police came in and arrested Slaughter and Mitchell. They were arraigned in the police court this morning but both cases were dismissed.

Slaughter came to Tulsa about two years ago from Waco. Notwithstanding the determined fight against him by the Mitchell faction, he has a strong following in the church.

Two San Antonio Boys Have Brief but Brilliant Career in Crime.

Special to The Eagle.

San Antonio, April 1.—Two small boys, James Valentine and Emmett Schaffner, began and ended last night a brief but brilliant career of crime. First, they stole a pistol and a bottle of whisky in the Gonshor saloon and then attempted to hold up the proprietor but he showed fight and they ran. Next getting possession of a horse and buggy they drove down into Alaska county and attempted to hold up a negro near Pleasanton, but he made his escape. Returning to this city this morning they were arrested and are now thinking over their exploits in the city jail.

Closed Successful Revival

The revival which state evangelist, Rev. S. W. Kendrick, has just closed at Hempstead was a most successful meeting in every respect. There were 25 public professions and 19 additions to the church, besides a general revival among the christian people of the city. Rev. S. W. Kendrick will go to Houston Saturday to begin a meeting there.

Annual Field Day.

The annual field day exercises of Allen Academy were held today and some fine records were made. The day was ideal and quite a large crowd was in attendance. The full report and results of the various events will be given tomorrow afternoon as they were not concluded in time for today's paper.
